Dear Josh:

Thank you for your letter of September 25. Following your suggestion I shall write to Devignat to reinforce your letter with my own comment of interest.

I have just checked with our central depository for reprints and they say that they still have some copies of your lysogenicity paper on hand but could not tell me the exact number. Within a few days we shall forward to you all of these remaining copies.

With best regards,

Sincerely yours,

WERNER BRAUN
